The San Diego Children's Coalition is proud to present the Kids Zone at the Water for Children Music Fest & ECO Fair. The Children's Coalition is a non-profit, resource center providing counseling and support to children and family charities and organizations at no cost in the County of San Diego! Our vision to inspire a new generation of leaders and ignite the passion for the arts in our youth today and keep it alive for tomorrow!

The Water for Children Music Fest & ECO Fair is a cutting edge event to raise awareness for the education of water management and preservation in America is set for Saturday, September 24, 2011 from 9 AM to 7 PM on the beautiful campus of San Diego City College.

The campus is well known for being proactive in ecological issues and the international students attending the courses. The event is expected to draw more than 1,000 students, fans, and family members.

The community (Downtown, East Village, Coronado, Golden Hills, and Bankers Hill) and their canine friends will come together for contests, music, games, Wiener (Hot Dog) eating contest, BBQ rib eating contest, vendors, kids and family activities and, of course, food. It's a great way to see old friends and make new ones.
